

Oversight Agreement 2018
between the Property Services Regulatory Authority and the Department of Justice and Equality

Part I – Oversight Agreement

1. Introduction

1.1 The Property Services Regulatory Authority (“PSRA”) is an independent statutory body established on 3 April 2012, by the Minister of Justice and Equality pursuant to the Property Services (Regulation) Act, 2011. The PSRA is responsible for the licensing and regulation of Property Service Providers (i.e. auctioneers/estate agents, letting agents and property management agents).

1.2 The principal functions of the Property Services Regulatory Authority are to:

1. Control, supervise and regulate Property Service Providers;
2. Operate a comprehensive licensing system covering all Property Service Providers;
3. Establish and administer a system of investigation and adjudication of complaints against Property Service Providers;
4. Establish and administer a system of investigation of standards in the provision of Property Services;
5. Impose sanctions on Property Service Providers for improper conduct (including fines up to €250,000 and the revocation of a licence);
6. Promote increased consumer protection and public awareness of property services in general;
7. Establish, maintain and administer a Compensation Fund to compensate parties who lose money as a direct consequence of the dishonesty of a Property Services Provider;
8. Develop Codes of practice for Property Service Providers;
9. Establish and maintain a Public Register of Property Sales Prices;
10. Establish and maintain a Commercial Leases Database;
11. Establish and maintain a Public Register of Licensed Property Service Providers;
12. Act as a State Competent Authority for Money Laundering in the Property Services Sector;

13. Assist the Minister in the development of policy relating to the regulation of the Property Services industry;
14. Undertake or commission research projects;
15. Specify and enforce:
  - Standards for the granting of all licences to Property Service Providers (e.g. educational/training standards; levels of professional indemnity insurance), and
  - Standards to be observed in the provision of property services by Property Service providers (e.g. technical standards; appropriate ethical standards).

1.3 Residential Property Price Register

Section 86 of the Property Services (Regulation) Act provides for the establishment of the Residential Property Price Register. The Register, which was established and published by the Authority in September 2012, includes information on residential properties purchased in Ireland since 1 January 2010, as declared to the Revenue Commissioners for stamp duty purchases. The Authority updates the Register on a weekly basis.

1.4 Register of Licensed Property Service Providers

The Authority is required under the Property Services (Regulation) Act 2011 to publish particulars of all Property Service Providers licensed by it. This Register was first published in March 2013 and contains the following information on all persons licensed by the Authority:

- Name of Licensee;
- Address of Licensee;
- Category of Licensee (i.e. Company, Partnership, Sole Trader, Employee);
- Type of Licence held; and
- Licence Expiry Date.

1.5 Commercial Leases Database

Section 87 of the Property Services (Regulation) Act 2011 provides for the establishment of the Commercial Leases Database. This legislation applies to all commercial property leases entered into on or after the 3 April 2012 (the date the legislation became operational). The Act also provides that certain limited information may be published by the Authority in respect of leases entered into before that date. Consequently, the Authority is making available certain information in respect of all leases entered into since 1 January 2010.

The Database, which was published by the Authority in October 2013, provides for greater transparency by making publically available, for the first time, the relevant details of letting agreements and rent reviews in the commercial property market. Additional resources assigned to address the deficits on the Commercial Leases Register has significantly increased the level of compliance.

2. Role of the Property Services Regulatory Authority within the Justice & Equality sector

2.1 Mission

The PSRA's mission is to control and supervise Auctioneers, Estate Agents, Letting Agents and Management Agents and to protect the interests of the public in their interaction with them by ensuring that high standards are maintained in the delivery of property services. The work of the PSRA contributes to the Department's high level strategic goal of maintaining a safe and secure Ireland.

2.2 Function

3.14 Anti-Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing

A Property Services Provider is a “designated person” for the purposes of the Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010. In order to comply with this Act, designated persons are required to ensure that customers are not laundering money or financing terrorism.

On 5 September 2016, the Minister conferred the relevant powers under the Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010 upon the PSRA by way of an order under Section 60 of the Act. This enables the PSRA to monitor Property Service Providers for the purpose of securing compliance by such providers with the requirements of the Act. The resources necessary to perform the investigative function is dependent upon the outsourcing of audit compliance investigations.

As part of its regulatory remit, the Authority will undertake audits of anti-money laundering compliance of property service providers on an annual basis.

The purpose of this PCR will be to consider whether there is an ongoing business case for the PSRA, in accordance with paragraph 8.14 of the Code of Practice for the Governance of State Bodies. The Department will engage with the Authority throughout this process.

3.19 Governance obligations will also be reviewed as part of the overall monitoring process of this Oversight Agreement itself.
